Arcadia Mill Archaeological Site to Host October 2010 Lecture Series

Milton, FL - West Florida Historic Preservation Inc. and the Florida Public Archaeology Network have announced that Arcadia Mill Archaeological Site, located in Milton, Florida, at 5701 Mill Pond Lane, will host a public lecture series during October 2010. The lecture series, "Secrets of Santa Rosa: Archaeology and History in Your Backyard," will take place Saturdays in October at 11 a.m.

This free event, held in the Arcadia Mill museum, will showcase a variety of speakers discussing the history and archaeology of Santa Rosa County, Florida, as part of the 7th annual Beaches to Woodlands Tour presented by the Santa Rosa County Tourist Development Council. Following the presentations, guests are invited to take a guided boardwalk tour of the Arcadia Mill site. The lecture series is sponsored by the University of West Florida, Florida Public Archaeology Network, West Florida Historic Preservation Inc. and Arcadia Mill Archaeological Site. For further information, please visit our website at www.historicpensacola.org.

West Florida Historic Preservation, Inc., is a direct support organization of the University of West Florida, operating the T. T. Wentworth Jr. Florida State Museum, Historic Pensacola Village, the Pensacola Historical Society, and Arcadia Mill Archaeological Site.
